THE RESPONSIBLE PARTY

No more evidence of the incompetency of he democratic majority in congress to deal with any question in other than a provincial. rural and partisan spirat, is required than is seen in the manner in which the subject of southwestern Indian difficulties have neen handled. It makes no difference to the Rip Van Winkles, as an exchange remarks, who have found themselves in temporary command of the legislative branch of the government, how far removed any question is from a partisan attitude, they can only deal with it in that light and from that standpoint. If they do not understand it, they dodge; if there is any apprehension of the cough it make it moves them, then that is used to see whether some party or sectional advantage can be obtained. A striking proof of this is found in the unwarrantable delay which has been shown in dealing with the which has been shown in desiring with the Ute question. But ante-dating that is the hostile action legainst the United States army and he maintenance of its efficiency. If the appropriations had not been pared, it won pem possible to have maintained in the previous the Apache scouts whom Gen. Crook first utilized against the hostiles of their own

To the petty politicians and seventy nine statesman, who now control congress in both branches, it seems to make no difference whatever, that within a brief period wast re-sources have been exploited in the new southwest; that there are two transconti nental lines of railway being constructed aerein; that one of them is both transcon inental and international in character; that espital, to the extent of millions, is being poured into that region, and that thousand of citizens of the United States are pouring into the indirated section; seeking wes and building up a civilized life as they search. To the democratic politicians now in congress all this is a matter of indifference, be de the carrying of a point in the ementially seem game of personal politics in which they are now engaged.

war department and shorn the army of its argest usefulness. They are hindering the development of our great mining interests ald our railroad enterprise. The democrate have stopped supplies and made the general should be strong and respected. They are now making the weakness of our army so bat at as to encourage the savage marauders the frontier and put in the scale of their crimmai indifference, the lives of the hardy pioneer, and frontiersmen. It is within the power of congress to do much, is can give the army wings and to arouse to success all way of a great indian wardn the southbe averted the danger is not past. Congress can give min. THURSDAY EVENING June 10
The Liverpool wheat market, against the judg ment of the best advised suborities continues to drag slong in a very low and ansatisfactory con dition. Should there be no reaction from the dead level of prices that now prevail on the other dead level of prices that now provail on the other side wheat will be very low in this market after therest. The amount of tonnage directed this way is less than for the past three years and combined with the prospect of a large crop on the Pacific chest insures high freight rates for the first part of the shipping year shead without a doubt. As for the present market, it can scarely be said that there is any, as there are no chips available at though negotiations are on foot to scarre one it possible but the trygency for salmon freight interferes very much with this prospect. Could a vessel be had at pravailing freight rates wheat would be worth 31 40 per cental free on board here.

worth $1.40 per cental free on beard here.
San Francisco and eastern markets continue dull, There, has been a disposition on the part of bolders during the past week to accent ruling solders during the past week to accept ruling sides and the consequence is more activity than as logised for last week. A number of sales of satern Oregon were made at 222-24c, the laster for
